To my darling wife who I love so much.

Hello darling, here I am again.
Well decent, you should see me now. I have a glass of Scotch & Grapefruit juice mixed up in front of me. You dear we are celebrating a well deserved rest. And that isn't all honey, we had sheets on our bed last night. The house we are in now is really a nice one.
My headquarters group is really living in style. We have there big beds & sheets, (white), & nice clean pillow cases. See honey, there are some nice things about warface.
Besides we all have good high morale now on account of Russia pushing on the Eastern front. Tonight we are going to have champagne.

The rest of my liquor ration for the month. Boy honey, this is the life.
But it can't last too long.

Even though my morale is high honey, my old heart is still yearning for my little mama.
She honey, but I love you so very much. Dear, if I could only be back home with you now drinking root & grapefruit juice.
You would probably be drinking straight juice like I'd want you.
Honey, I'm so thankful that you don't smoke or drink. I don't ever want you to smoke dear. I want you to stay just as you are. The same way as I left you. The most lovable, adorable wife & the sweetest wife a guy could ever have. Oh honey, I'm so very much in love with you.

Dearest, you mean the world & all to me. And honey, I miss you terribly. I just can't wait till I get back home to my little honey. Dear, will be so very happy then. Just me & my little honey. Darling, will be the two most happiest couple in the world. Honey, we will start our home in the suburbs & be so very happy. Then will start on our basketball team. Honey, should we start our home first or by our car? We can use Popi for awhile I guess. I only have 4

40 days to go to get my job back under the S. S. bill of rights is here, will have to enjoy ourselves that month. Most of it will spend at Lake Camp. Then will settle down to our regular life.
Oh honey, will be so happy. Honey, I'm in love with you.

No mail or packages today honey.
I can't wait till I get chocolate-cream shrimp honey. Dear, send all the things you can with the same. And all the Annie Magee & Mrs. Snyder or candy you can send.
It all comes in handy.

Well, darling, I am out of news so I'll close for today. So darling be for now & remember honey that I love you with all my heart & I'm always thinking of you. Tell Pop hello & pet Marge for me darling, Don't worry tomorrow doesn't tell her. P.S. Lots of love & you ever loving husband I'm forever
